

currency swap through the exchange stabilization fund or the Federal Reserve System, beyond those already in effect, that there is no projected cost (as defined in the Credit Reform Act of 1990) to the United States from the action; that such loans, credits, guarantees or currency swaps are adequately backed to ensure repayment; that the Mexican government is making progress in developing an independent bank or an independent currency control mechanism; that Mexico has in effect a significant economic reform effort; and that the President has provided the documents described in paragraphs (1) through (28) of House Resolution 80 as adopted on March 1, 1995. For the purposes of the final certification, any classified documents that may not have been produced to the House of Representatives would be produced to certain specified Members of Congress.

5. The agreement modifies the definition of "appropriate congressional committees" to include the Committees on Appropriations of the House and Senate, and includes a definition for the term "exchange stabilization fund" as stated in section 5302(a)(1) of title 31, United States Code.

The House bill contained no provision on this matter.

Amendment No. 25: Restores the citation of the House passed bill in lieu of the one proposed by the Senate.

The conference agreement restores the title of the House passed bill in lieu of the one proposed by the Senate.

PERMISSION FOR SUNDRY COM- MITTEES TO SIT ON THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 1995, DURING FIVE- MINUTE RULE

Mrs. SMITH of Washington. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the following committees and their subcommittees be permitted to sit tomorrow while the House is meeting in the Committee of the Whole House under the 5-minute rule:

Committee on Agriculture; Committee on Banking and Financial Services; Committee on Government Reform and Oversight; Committee on International Relations; Committee on the Judiciary; Committee on National Security; Committee on Small Business; Committee on Transportation and Infrastructure; and Committee on Veterans' Affairs.

It is my understanding that the minority has been consulted and that there is no objection to these requests.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. RIGGS). Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Washington?

Mr. WISE. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, I do so to thank the majority. This has been cleared with all the minority ranking members.

Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Washington?

There was no objection.

THERE SHOULD BE NO NEW TAXES ON FEDERAL EMPLOYEES IN H.R. 1215

(Mr. WOLF asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WOLF. Mr. Speaker, listening to the 1-minutes back in my office, I agreed with literally everything that was said by the Members of my side, all the help there is for American families in the tax cut bill. But if everything they said is true, and I believe it is true, why would not the same help be given to Federal employees?

I have been a leader in the family issues for Federal employees and non-Federal employees for the 102nd Congress and the 103rd Congress.

The FBI agent that everyone here would call if their husband or wife or kids were kidnapped is a Federal employee. The cancer researcher out at NIH that everyone would call quickly if someone in your family had cancer is a Federal employee. The Secret Service agent, Timothy McCarthy, that stopped the bullet that saved the life of Ronald Reagan is a Federal employee.

So I say to my side, I agree with everything you have said, because the American family is under more pressure today than any other time in the history of the country. But if this is good for American families, it should be good for the families of Federal employees.

Mr. Speaker, I urge the leadership of my side to remove the provision which increases the payroll tax on Federal employees. It should never see the light of day and should not pass.

Mr. Speaker, as one of the first Members of Congress to call for family tax relief, I am
